

SCRIPT TECHNOLOGIST

MAJOR GOAL/OBJECTIVES:

To assist developers and end users in the task of implementing complex writing systems on computer systems, normally working on site in a field entity.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Develops or facilitates the development of general script technology training materials, including workshop courses, on-line information and training materials, and off-line training materials, i.e. audio/video.
- Plans, promotes, and participates in script technology workshops.
- Mentors and trains trainers and end users one-on-one or through correspondence.
- May write and publish technical material using a variety of media.
- Maintains awareness of and knowledge of technological advances by attending workshops and conferences.
- Works as a team member.
- Takes direction from the Non-Roman Script Initiative Script Director and/or entity director.

POSITION EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

- Degree in Computer Science, related degree or equivalent experience.
- Core sets oorganization training, field experience desirable, sociolinguistic exposure helpful.
- Competencies in MS Office applications and /or Open Office.